

The Butler Institute of American Art

Conditions for Reproduction

1. Requests

All requests for permission to reproduce an image for publication must be made in writing and include the intended use, the publisher, and expected date of publication. Rental and reproduction fees are payable in advance.

2. Permission

Permission to reproduce and the fees payable cover one-time use, in one edition and in one language. Additional language editions, subsequent editions, and any related promotional use must be considered as separate requests and will require additional fees and a new written application. Exclusive rights are not granted to any publisher.

3. Reproduction Specifications

- A. No Cropping: The painted area of a picture may not be cut down or masked out.
- B. No Bleeding: Reproductions may not run off the edge of the paper.
- C. No Overprinting: Reproductions may not be superimposed with type matter or in any way defaced or altered.
- D. Details: Applications to reproduce detail from a work will be reviewed by this institution. If approved, the word "detail" must appear in the caption with the credit line.
- E. Cover Use: Permission for a book jacket, video or calendar use will be considered upon receipt of a written application for such use. An additional fee is required for cover use.

4. Credit Line

The credit line must include artist, title, date, medium, size, and The Butler Institute of American Art, Youngstown, Ohio, unless specifically noted on contract otherwise. It must appear in an appropriate portion of the publication.

5. Special Projects

Special projects such as notecards, address books, and calendars must be presented to The Butler Institute of American Art for consideration and charges. A mock-up or sample of the publication must accompany the request.

6. Duplication

Applicants may not duplicate in any way a color transparency or a black and white photograph supplied by The Butler Institute of American Art.

7. Gratis Copy

The publisher is to provide The Butler Institute of American Art with one gratis copy of the publication in which the image is reproduced. In the case of theses and dissertations, photocopies of the references to the illustration will be acceptable.

8. Return

Color transparencies remain the property of The Butler Institute of American Art and must be returned by the contract-specified date. A transparency replacement fee is charged if the transparency is returned in such a condition that it cannot be reused.

9. Electronic Use

If rights are requested for electronic use, the conditions are as follows:

- A. Any CD-ROM or software will be designed so that the image will not be accessible by the user without the program interface. CD-ROM or software will be sufficiently secure to prevent unauthorized downloading or copying.
- B. The image will not be manipulated in any way, including color, dimension/scale, or the overlay of text.
- C. Full credit line must appear within electronic source text.

10. Disclaimer

The Butler Institute of American Art assumes no responsibility for any royalties claimed by the artist or on his behalf. In the case of works by living artists or other copyrighted material, written permission must be supplied by the applicant from the artist or the artist's agent.
